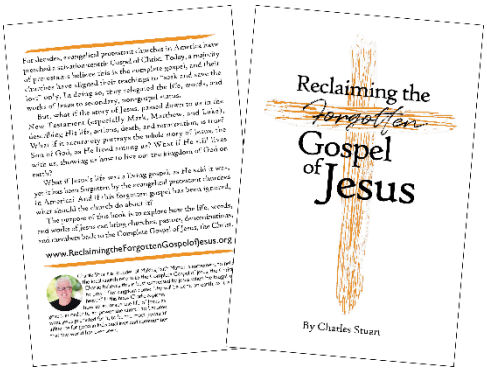
Hello, Dr. Baldwin . . .



My book, "Reclaiming the Forgotten Gospel of Jesus," has garnered words of support from a growing number of church leaders like Dr. Bruce Gourley, Dr. John Pierce and Dr. Doug Dortch.

In it I challenge the prevailing belief taught by most protestant churches that there is one and only one gospel — the Gospel of Salvation. Aren't the life and teachings of Jesus part of the gospel? I believe that, together, they become the complete Gospel of Jesus, the Christ.

If you act quickly, I will send you a FREE copy of the book (including delivery) and hope you will share your comments or questions with me. To order go to this link, follow the instructions, and I'll send it to you right away.

In the name of the complete Gospel of Jesus, the Christ . . .
